Adam Emil and Regal ideas Inc. join forces to help the Frontline Heroes

(Delta, BC) – Regal ideas Inc., the world’s leading manufacturer of Aluminum railing systems joined forces with global recording artist Adam Emil to deliver KN95 masks to Mercy Hospital in Chicago, IL.

This is part of the Feed-The-Fight campaign launched by Regal ideas nationally in efforts to help Frontline Nurses and Doctors across our nation. Donations to the campaign can be made by visiting feedthefightcanada.com or feedthefightUSA.com, which are managed on the GoFundMe® platform.

“With everything happening in the world today, only together can we make a difference. Together we can overcome. To our Frontline Heroes that have not stopped helping our communities, I want to say Thank You from the bottom of my heart.” Says Adam Emil. “When the world stopped, you stood up and gave us hope!”

Adam Emil and Regal ideas continue to do their part in their communities. Regal ideas reach has also expanded to other hospitals and states in response to the growing need for masks and other personal protective equipment for frontline healthcare professionals combating COVID-19.

“It is our duty to provide assistance where and when we can during these difficult times. Mankind is also our business, and perhaps the most important business of all...we are honored to do our part.” states Ernie Couillard, Executive Vice President for Regal ideas Inc.

Most recent Feed-The-Fight campaigns included meal deliveries to Harborview Medical Center in Seattle Washington and Grand River Hospital in Kitchener, Ontario. Microwaves and Kettle deliveries to the Atira Women’s Society in Vancouver with the help of Danby Appliances and Proctor Silex along with YWCA appliance deliveries in Vancouver. The KN95 mask deliveries continue this month at various hospitals.
